

THE gaiety of the past week has been of another order than that usual in society, and while there has been little of the "pink tea" nature doing, there has certainly been much of a truly social nature. Many of the prominent women of the city not only have plans for the week, both as society leaders and as housekeepers, and turning their attention to the strangers in the city, made many feel the depth of western hospitality. For three days the last week were accompanying the delegates who were received and entertained by the ladies of the city, and that they found their welcome a cordial one, none can doubt.

Many pleasant parties were formed for the purpose of taking in the sights of the town is still small enough to enjoy thoroughly the novelty of the street illuminations. Parties to the West show, too, were numerous, and several gay suppers followed the dusty rides home in the trolley.

Nearly every home in the city has had one or more guests from afar within its walls during the past few days, and many pleasant little dinners have been given in honor of the visitors. Altogether it has been a gay week, too, for more formal society affairs, which are common to a period of unbroken routine.

The fall season is almost here and the gay world is beginning to make preparations for the many large and elaborate affairs which are to be expected at that time of the year. The coming week has one or two pleasant events planned already.

Coming Events.

The week is to be opened tomorrow evening with the musicale at the Fifth East hotel, to be given by Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle and Mrs. Martha Royle King. Mrs. King will be assisted by Mr. Leon Woodmansee and the Treble Clef club, which is composed of Mrs. King and the Misses Elizabeth Davis, Edna Cohn and Edna Dwyer, with Mr. Loomis as accompanist.

Miss Lucile Sears will entertain at a Japanese card party Tuesday evening, and again on Wednesday afternoon she will give an informal affair in honor of Mrs. Roberts of Chicago.

Mrs. H. S. Knight and Mrs. M. M. Johnson will receive their friends at an informal at home next Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Johnson. The affair is in honor of Miss McCaa of Philadelphia, and the hours are from 3 till 6 o'clock.

Wednesday will be the special day of the season at the Country club. The regular social programme will be resumed, and the day time festivities will be followed by dancing in the evening. The hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Louise Smalley Smith, Miss Burke, Miss Geddes and Miss McCracken. A buffet supper will be served from 6:30 till 8:30 o'clock, and each member will be permitted to bring two guests. No special programme of athletic sports has been arranged for the day.

Engagements and Weddings.
Mrs. Caroline Y. Cannon announces the engagement of her daughter Vera to Mr. Heber C. Sharp, the son of Mr. James Sharp. The marriage is to be one of the early September events.

Mrs. A. Buckle announces the engagement of her daughter Pearl to Mr. Charles W. Luff. The wedding will take place Saturday, Aug. 30.

During the past week Mrs. M. A. Weller announced the marriage of her daughter Belle to Mr. E. A. Lambourn. The wedding is one of those set for early September.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Corey Ferguson and Dr. Fred L. Albitton. The date is Thursday, Sept. 4, and the ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bonnermort.

This afternoon, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. E. Pomeroy, will be solemnized the marriage of Miss Zina A. Stuart and Mr. B. F. Watkins. The ceremony will be performed by Bishop Jones at 4 o'clock and will be followed by a wedding supper.

A very pretty wedding of the past week was that of Miss Maud A. Hopkins and Mr. W. S. Quinter, both of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed at 3:30 Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barker. Later in the evening a delightful reception was held at which about thirty-five friends of the young people were present. Miss Maud Barker acted as bridesmaid. The bride wore a dainty gown of white or gaudie with trimmings of real lace. A large shower bouquet of white carnations completed her costume. The rooms were prettily decorated for the affair, pink and white being the colors used in the whole.

The bride is well known in Washington society, and was tendered an elaborate farewell party at the home of the groom's parents prior to her departure for this city. The groom is in the office of the Idaho, Nevada & California Stage company, and is a promising young business man. Mr. and Mrs. Quinter are at home to their friends at 72 North Street.

Another pretty wedding, although an extremely quiet one, was that of Miss Emma E. Lienhard and Mr. Henry White. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Judge Emery, and was followed by a pleasant reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Sadler, 230 A street, at which only the relatives of the families were present. The bride was unattended, and wore a pretty going away gown of gray broadcloth with hat and gloves to match. Immediately after the reception the bride and groom left for a three months' wedding trip south, where they will be the guests of the groom's relatives.

Luncheon at the Country Club.
Miss Anna McCormick was the hostess at a delightful luncheon at the Country club yesterday, given in honor of Miss Dillingham of Denver. The decorations were most artistic, and the guests were most numerous, being entirely in purple and white. Beautiful purple asters were used in profusion, and white flowers of the same variety were used with each place card. After the luncheon a pleasant contest in cutting figures was enjoyed, in which the prize was awarded to Miss Dillingham. Those present besides the guest of honor were Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Harris K. Masters, Mrs. Louise Smalley Smith, Miss Dooley, Miss Geddes, Miss Burke and Miss Lockhart.

Chafing Dish Supper.
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood entertained a party of friends at a delightful chafing dish supper Thursday evening. The evening proved a pleasant reunion for a number of their friends from Mississippi, who, having "done" the Elk convention, left Friday for a trip to the coast. Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Olive Guild and Miss Shingler of Jackson, Mrs. Perrin of Yazoo City, Mrs. Priely and Miss Latimer of Canton, Mr. Stinson and Mr. Perlinsky of Canton, Mr. R. C. Wilkerson of Vicksburg and Messrs. Mosel, Bryson and Crowder of Jackson.

Musical.
Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Andrews gave a delightful informal musicale at their home Friday evening, to which a large number of friends were invited. Those who took part in the excellent programme were Miss Berkhoff, Miss Swift, Mrs. John Reed, Mr. Woodmansee, Mr. Skelton, Mr. Pickell of Montana and Mr. Copley. The home was prettily decorated with long vines, white asters and sunflowers. At the conclusion of the programme refreshments were served.

Dinner Party.
Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill entertained a party of friends at dinner at the Alta club Wednesday evening, and at the conclusion of the courses Captain Greary took the same party to the Wild West show. Among the guests present were Mr. Charles I. Rader of the Annie Laurie mine, Mrs. Henry M. Landover of Philadelphia, Mrs. E. J. Yard of Denver, Miss Greary, Miss Violet Neill, Dr. J. K. W. Bracken and Lieutenant Creary and Farrar.

Circus Party.
Lieutenant McConnell was the entertaining host of a merry party to the Wild West show last Wednesday evening. The event was followed by a delicious supper, served at the home of Mrs. and Mr. Greary. The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Flier, Miss McGrath, Miss Salisbury, Miss McMillan, Miss Trotwood, Mrs. T. Ellis Browne, Mr. Ripley and Lieutenant Platt.

House Party.
A lively house party was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller during convention week at their hospitable home on East First South. They invited all the attractions of the week in a body and formed a merry group. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Vile of Saratoga, N. Y., and Mrs. John Marshall of Schuylerville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Throckmorton, Miss Throckmorton and Mr. Oak Throckmorton of Wichita, Kan.
